Even though our stepping stones are limited as we pass through this short life, we of the Magnet staff of 1951 have attempted to give you some material reminder of the most important events that you have encountered during the past nine months. If in years to come you can look between the covers of this publication and visualize life as it was then, we have been thoroughly successful in proving to you that your high school education has been the cornerstone of your career.

Here, then, between the covers of this book is the record of this school year at Selma High. May it bring to you memories of the accomplishments, varied activities, and fun that this year has offered.

The Board of Trustees are composed of prominent men of the community. They are Mr. Henry Metzler, President; Mr. Harold Child, Clerk; Mr. Earnest Nielson, Mr. Leslie Unger, and Mr. Ted Raley.

These men have proved themselves a group of outstanding men by their willingness to promote the best in facilities and activities here in Selma.

They have devoted their time and energy to further the welfare and interests of the school.

It is they who are many times the unseen-but always appreciated-power behind all those advances which protect the welfare of the youth of our district.

For The Bettering Of Selma High

Miss Bonander, Mr. Nichelini, Jim Hicks, Marguerite Perry, Keith Kleinhammer, Louella Harris, Janice Craven, Neva Roman, Shirley Hansen, Elizabeth Cox.

This year our rally committee has done a very fine job of keeping up our school spirit.

We have had various pep assemblies this year from skits, pom-pom girls, and yell leaders, to mock operations and funerals.

The rally committee consists of yell leaders, president of the Block "S", president of G. A. A., pom-pom girls and the Student Body Vice-president.

It was the job of the rally committee to plan new yells and new ideas for our pep assemblies. They did a very fine job throughout the year.

Koko, our secretary, and Janette, our clerk, have done a very fine job of keeping things rolling smoothly this year.

Among Janette's many duties are keeping the attendance records in the office and taking the lunch money in the cafeteria. She has many other odd jobs to take care of in the office each day.

Koko makes out the teachers' pay checks and takes care of all the buying that is done through the office. She also does most of Mr. Timothy's correspondence and acts as his receptionist. She has been equally cooperative and gracious to the rest of the faculty and students.

Janette Mason, Clerk; Koko Sakohira, Secretary.

DICK CAIN

One of the most active and representative groups in Selma Union High School is our Student Body Council.

The council is made up of student body officers, class presidents and representatives, the editors of the Magnet and the Clarion, the business manager of the Magnet, the vice principal, Mr. Marsh, and faculty treasurer, Mr. Tanke.

As Student Body President Dick Cain automatically becomes a member of the Rotary Club and has regularly represented the high school at its meetings.

Dick has proven himself a very capable president of Selma High.

Jim Hicks, Student Body Vice-president, has carried out his duties as chairman of the Rally Committee very well.

Jim has been in charge of our very fine pep assemblies this year.

Marilyn White, as Student Body Secretary, has kept the records of this year's meetings in very good shape.

Marilyn has made a very capable Student Body Secretary in that she has been regular in attendance at meetings and accurate in taking notes.

Appointed as Student Body Treasurer this year is Gay Gregory. Gay has put in a lot of extra time of her own to keep the books in order.

She has kept a neat set of records showing the financial standing of the student body and of all the school organizations.

The council has the job of conducting all student body business which arises during the school.

As representatives of the students they must use their best judgment in deciding all important matters.

The council appreciates the cooperation given to them by the students and administration and by the community.

Mr. Timothy has been a sympathetic counselor to the students of Selma High this year.

Mr. Timothy's office is a most difficult one to fill. It is up to him to make wise decisions regarding school policies. He takes care of all the business of this school district and tries to develop good public relations with the community, so that it will continue to support our school.

For their services in teaching us all through our school years, we express our appreciation, realizing that they were in this "line of duty" because of their faith in American Youth.

Without Miss Anderson there would be a lot of students with unsolved problems.

She is the dean of girls, and that alone is a great responsibility. Here is the difficult task of counseling students who have poor grades and those who want program changes made. She also has charge of our testing program. We all know that Miss Anderson is ready and willing to help us with any difficulty that we might have, and we do not hesitate to seek her council.

She deserves many thanks for everything that she has done for us this year.

Efficient Assistance

This year, as always, the custodians have done an excellent job of keeping the campus and schoolrooms clean. Their job is hard, but they have always kept our school looking well. In addition to keeping the school clean, they have worked hard down at the football field.

We can always be sure our classrooms will be neat and clean, and our lawn kept trim, as long as we have these fine custodians.

How would you like to peel potatoes for 600 students each day? That is what our cooks—Mrs. Ethel Connel, Mrs. Helga Carlson, and Mrs. Cline—have to do everyday. That is only one of the many duties they do for us.

They have always had well-prepared meals for us each day. They help serve the food, and are always cheerful. It is always nice to see their smiling faces as they serve our food to us.

They have worked hard this year, and we are all thankful for the kind and helpful services they have rendered to us this past school year.

Selma High is very fortunate to have such kind and patient bus drivers. They hold a great responsibility of bringing and taking the students to school every day.

They were the first to start taking our students to football games out of town. It is through their kindness that we have been able to take the various trips to festivals and conferences of all kinds.

Their job has not been an easy one, and we deeply appreciate all they have done for us this year.

Advisors

We, the class of 1951, decided to make our last year at Selma High our best year. Our class has had outstanding leadership in all sports, scholarships, and in all activities.

We have enjoyed a full and unforgettable four years at Selma High. It was with a feeling of sadness as well as anticipation, that we looked forward to Senior Day, the Baccalaureate service, and finally our graduation.

As we look back over this past year's activities we cannot help but remember registration day--when we met all our friends and talked about our vacation.

The first day of school we got our first glimpse of the Freshmen. We ran for the best seats in the classrooms and commented on the teachers and classes.

Athletic sweaters were awarded to our outstanding girl athletes. They were Merilyn White, Nobie Kira, and Lois Erickson. The three high-point men were Dick Cain, Junior Donabedian, and Bob Ogata.

Senior pictures were taken and we traded them with our friends and gave them away to our relatives.

We gave our Junior Play which was, "We Shook the Family Tree." The Junior-Senior Banquet which we gave for the Seniors of '50" was held in the Hotel Sequoia.

We wish to thank our advisors, Mr. Ted Moranda, Miss Delores Bonander, and Mr. Harold Phillips for their interest and help in all the undertakings of our class.

The elective officers of the Selma Student Body receive the announcement of their election at the Junior-Senior Banquet, May 27, 1950. The gala event was made memorable for the following by the good news of their election: Gay Gregory, Treasurer; Merilyn White, Secretary; Nobie Kira, Magnet Editor; Johnny Mechigian, Magnet Business Manager; Dick Cain, President; Jim Hicks, Rodney Well, Clarion Editor.

Their Goal Attained

Smiling faces and genial personalities characterize Nobie Kira and Dick Cain, who were elected by the senior class as tops in all around.

Nobie, our G. A. A. Vice President, C. S. F. Secretary-Treasurer, sweater wearer, and Editor of our annual, has won the admiration of the students by her ability and character.

We all know Dick as our Student-Body President who is very active in sports and had been all through his four years of high school. Proving his ability in athletics he was awarded the most valuable player trophy in football this past year.

Good luck, kids, and keep up your good work.

There are some people who may not hold many high offices during their high school years, but still they are well known and well liked by all their school mates for their stirring qualities. They don't sulk if they're defeated in an election; they work on committees; they're lots of fun. These are some of the qualities of Dorothy Nielsen and Benny Keeling who were chosen to have their pictures here because of their character.

Whenever you see these two people you always see a friendly smile and get a cheery hello. Yes, this best describes two of our popular seniors, Connie Perrine and Jim Hicks.

Connie has only been in school one year, but in that time she has gained many new friends and she was elected by the students to represent Selma as a queen contestant in the Madera Armistice Day parade.

Jim is another one of those busy seniors, being vice president of the Student-body and president of the Future Farmers. He is either busy getting one of his pep assemblies on or busy with Future Farmer activities, but has time to be a friend to everyone.

Junior Class

The up and coming class of '52" are the leaders of the future. Here is some proof.

They first started out by running the Junior stand at the games. Great credit is due to the workers, especially John Arakaki who was assisted by many of his classmates at various times.

Second, they gave the Junior Play called "Stranger in the Night", a mystery comedy in 3 acts. It was a great success. Each and every member of the Junior class participated in a contest during the sale of tickets. John Eberlein, Laura Richart, Bobby McClintock and Marjorie Sires were the best sellers.

Last but not least the Juniors gave the Seniors their banquet which was held at

Sophomore Class

The Sophomore Class returned to Selma High in September feeling much smarter than they did a year ago when they were known as "the green" Freshmen.

They have been prominent in all activities and athletics, and have shown that they have much leadership. They also have many of their classmates in the Scholarship Society.

On December 21, the Sophomores gave a very successful Christmas dance at the Garfield Auditorium. In addition to the dance, they also gave class parties.

During the month of February, they ordered their Junior rings. Though it

Both work and play have made every hour of this year exciting and interesting; and as they leave school this June, they will eagerly look forward to the next two years at Selma High.

Freshman Class

As all Freshmen are when they enter high school, the class of 1954 was "green" and shy when it entered Selma High School. The first six weeks of school were spent accustoming themselves to high school. Though they escaped the old time ordeal of initiation, they found plenty to learn. With courage and enthusiasm they have enjoyed a very successful year.

They first organized themselves by electing their class officers--President, Bob Haire; Vice President, Jeanne Haseltine; Boy's Treasurer, Bobby Little; Girls' Treasurer, Anna Fannell; Secretary, Grace Harper.

A Promising Beginning

The Freshmen showed a lot of school spirit at the pep rallies and have become active in various school activities. Their sportsmanship and leadership have been superb. Some of the members of the Freshman Class were on the Scholarship Society and also on the honor roll. The highlight of the year was the class party which proved a huge success.

The class of 1954 is anxious to make a name for itself and is looking forward toward its sophomore year.

With the assistance of their advisors, Mr. Gates Burrell and Miss Nellie Christensen, the Freshman Class has enjoyed a very memorable year at Selma High.

The teen age branch of the Y. M. C. A., Y-Teens, has played an important role in the lives of Selma High girls for many years.

The objectives of a Y-Teen are: to grow as a person; to grow in friendship with people of all races, religions and nationalities; to grow in knowledge and love of God.

The club sent five cartons of chocolates to a foreign land for Christmas as their service project this year with money raised by sale of Christmas cards and Christmas tree tickets.

A wiener roast at Rhoeding Park, Christmas caroling party, snow party and fashion show were enjoyed events of the club.

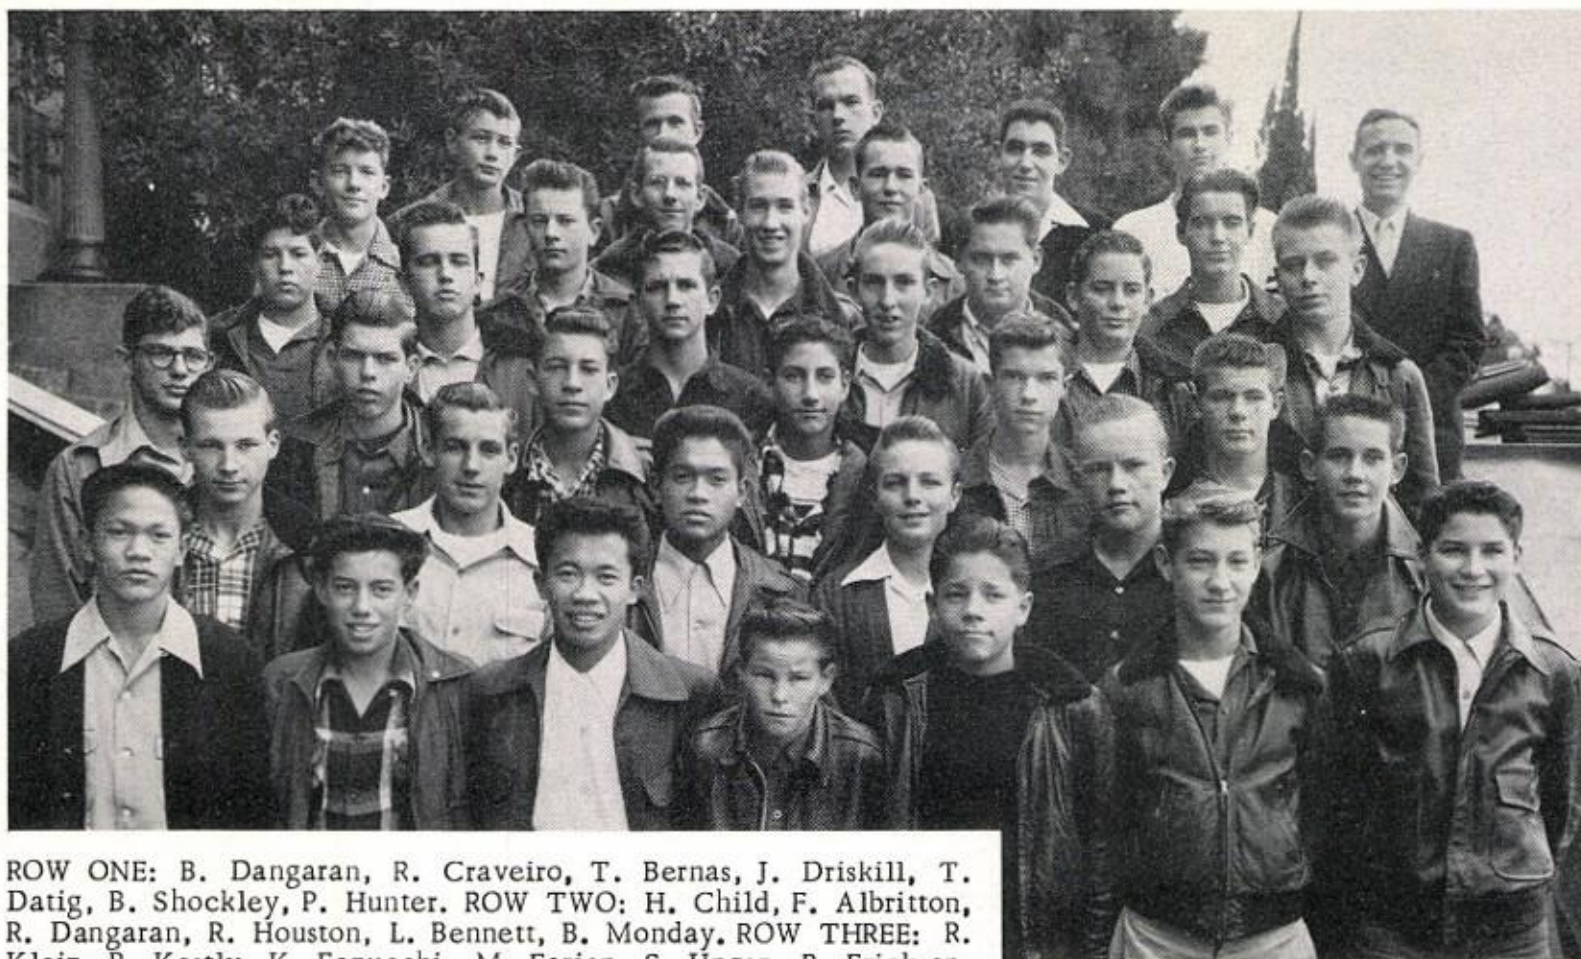

The Recognition Ceremony in December welcomed twenty-three new members.

In February they successfully sponsored the Valentine Dance, and in May the Spring Day festivities.

Genavie Fulton, Sharlene Mercer, Farolene Connelly, and Sandra Tanke attended the Mid-Winter Conference at Asilomar.

The Hi-Y started the year by electing a new slate of officers and acquiring a new meeting place. This Y Center, which is downtown, has accommodations for various games and amusements.

Don Shantz, Ted Bernas, Howard Dienger, Jerry Ellis, and Ronald Klien gave Selma a good representation at the joint Hi-Y--Tri-Y Leaders Conference at Sequoia Lake in September.

Eight new members were brought in at our induction ceremony held in January. These new members and the old members were also the happy participators in the caroling party with the Y-Teens held the previous month.

Our meetings have been interesting and educational. We have had the following informative subjects: movies of Guatemala, the great picture "One God" which informed us on the different types of worship, and an interesting talk by a State policeman.

Other activities were an ice skating party, a joint Hi-Y--Tri-Y convention held in Selma, a snow party, and a hay ride.

We gratefully thank our advisor, Mr. Carl Tanke, for really helping us have a swell year.

California Scholarship Federation

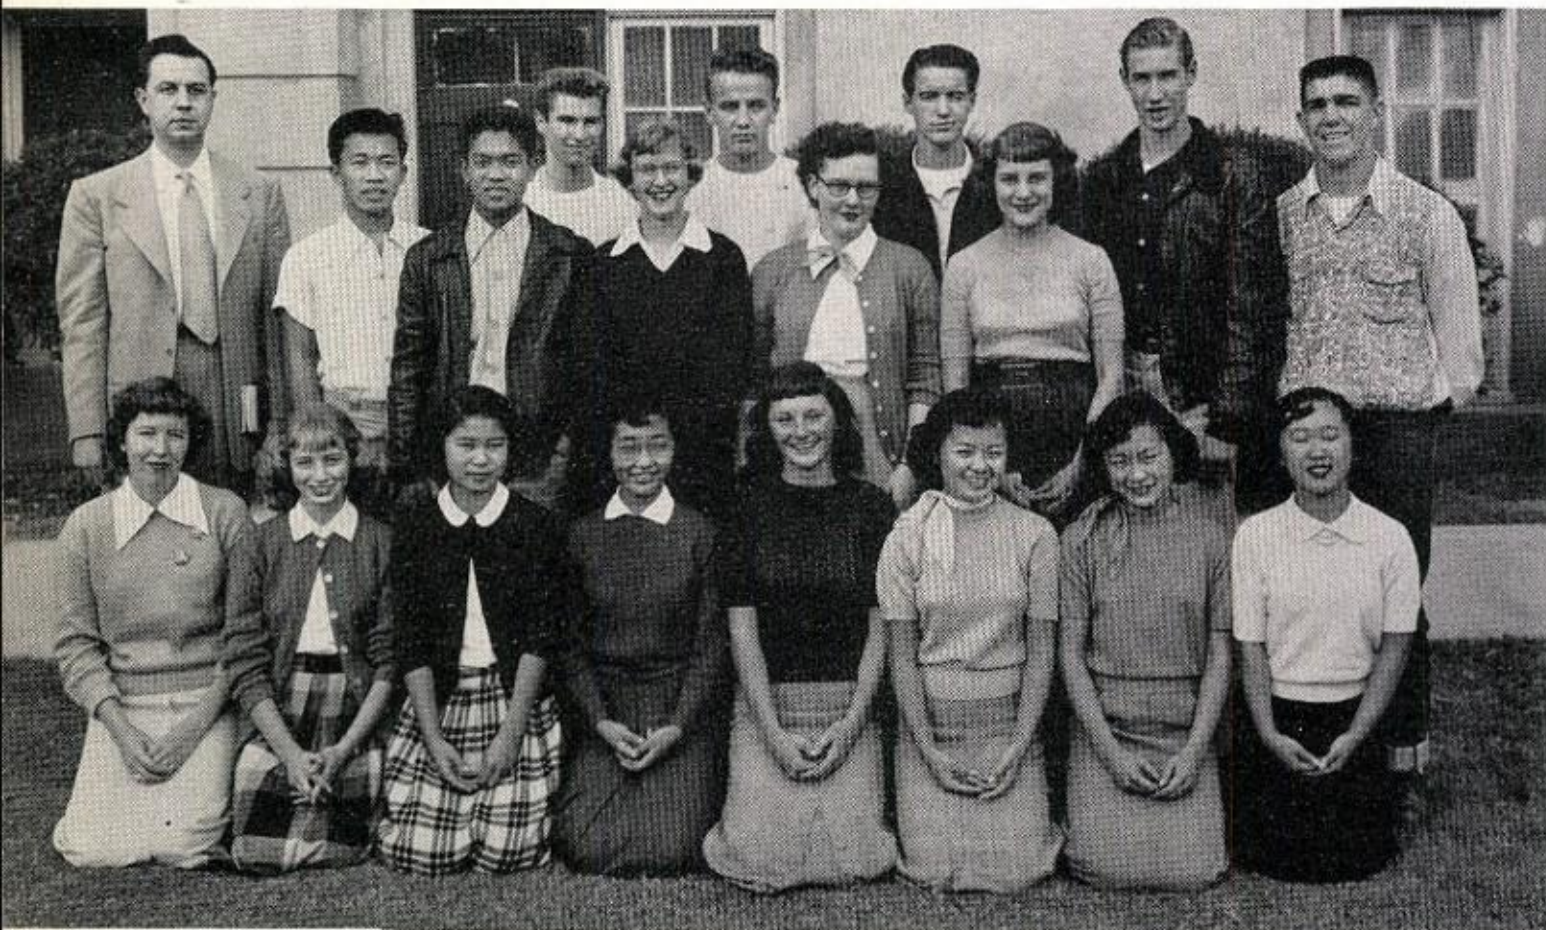

This year the C.S.F. has had a very profitable and eventful club. Mr. Thomas Wescoat had done a fine job of helping them and has been a good advisor.

The scholarship group has had many activities. Several members attended the convention held at Sierra Union High School during the first center.

In the second semester Howard Dienger was elected President, Wayne Peterson, Vice-President, and Gay Gregory, Secretary of the Treasury.

The club enjoyed a trip to Berkeley to visit the University of California, sponsored an all school dance and had charge of decorating for Commencement.

Future Farmers

The F. F. A. has grown every year until it has now become one of the largest organizations in school.

Among their various activities was a judging contest at the Fresno Fair. Our Milk Judging team won first place and learned a great deal from the showmanship that was observed.

Other contests which the boys entered were the Parliamentary Procedure contest which was held in Selma, December 19th and a Vine Pruning contest in the last week of January. They also participated in a basketball tournament at Reedley.

The officers of the Selma chapter are: President, Jim Hicks; Vice President, Fred Witt; Secretary, Don Emmerson; Treasurer, Leon Bennett; Reporter, Jim Masuda; and Sentinel, John Eberlein.

We are very proud of our boys and their ability to win or place in various contests which they have entered, thanks to Mr. Webster.

The winning Parliamentary Procedure team consisted of Jim Hicks, Jim Sakamoto, Harvey Takikawa, Bobbie Humphrey, and Kenneth Chamberlain.

Congratulations to the seven senior boys Jim Hicks, Fred Witt, Gilbert Singh, Donald Emmerson, Ray Carlson, Burl Bingham, and Jim Masuda, who have been members all four years.

The Junior Red Cross Council started off the year by voting to have boxes filled for Christmas. They bought the toys and ordered the groceries. The groceries and toys were then taken to the police station and delivered from there along with the gifts donated by other clubs.

Later on in the school year the Red Cross gave an assembly and opened a membership drive. Their next project was to send gift boxes to the children in the foreign countries.

With Mr. Schediwy as advisor and Patsy Erwin as President this small but active group had a successful year.

Future Homemakers

After four years of existence and a change of name from "Baste and Taste" to Future Home Makers, the local home economics club this year joined the National Future Home Makers of America.

The first project of the year was the selling of candied apples at the football games. Though there were some burns ("Boy, that hurts," says the voice of experience) the results were very profitable. Next refreshments were sold during the intermission of the play "Two Blind Mice."

Attending the Ice Cycles was our January feature. Those who attended found these very enjoyable, as this was a new experience to many.

At a pot luck dinner prepared by the members, the mothers were guests.

Clever stuffed animal toys were made and sold to further increase the club funds.

Cadets

The Cadet class gives military training to the students in an optional course. The boys practice marching and study manual of arms, map reading and related matters.

The Cadets got uniforms early in November and have worn them every Wednesday.

They are going to build a rifle range. They have 1300 rounds of .22 Caliber Ammunition to fire as they wish to. The class has 42, "0.3" rifles to drill with and fire .22's.

The Cadets formed a Cadet Social Club, which had a snow party on January 27. They will have a Cadet Ball on the 20th of May.

The class is new and we expect more next year.

Band

The band has had another successful year bringing in several honors from the different parades such as the Dinuba and Reedley parades.

They went to the Madera Armistice Day Celebration and had the pleasure of marching in the "Santa Claus Lane" at Hollywood, the hi-light of the year.

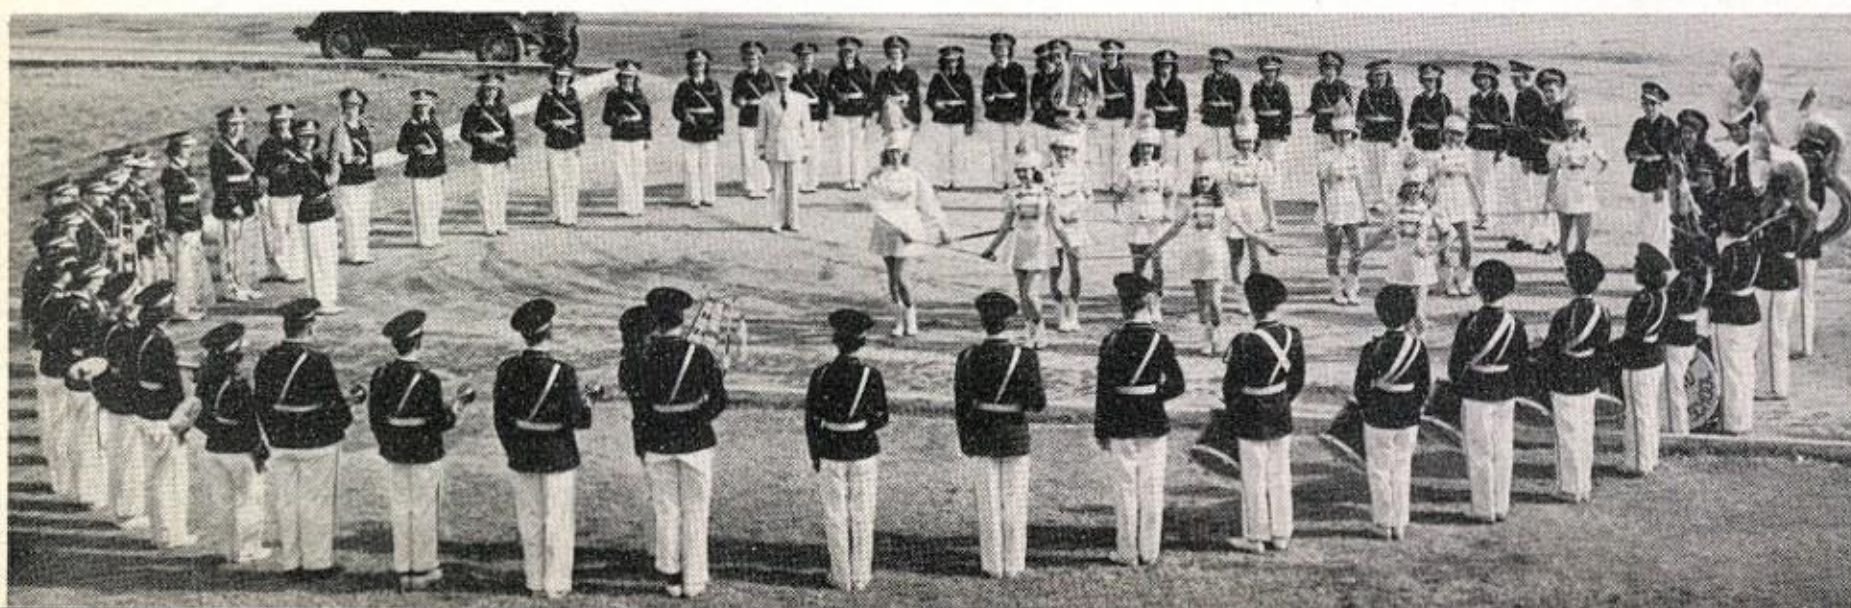

The band attended the football games and gave performances between halves. At the Sanger-Selma game the two bands marched together and did very well. At the Lemoore game the Selma band and Lemoore band marched at the same time saluting their own sides. At the Reedley game, our band made an "R" and an "S". For the Fowler game, our band made an "F" and just played and saluted our side.

After Christmas they practiced for the Concert in May. Some of the members of the band also took an important part in the exchange assemblies.

As usual Selma High is proud of the band Mr. Nord has so ably directed.

The band and majorettes form a huge clock between halves of football game.

Our High Steppers

Our majorettes started the year by adding three new members. With the three new girls and the seven girls left from last year, the band had a very well organized and good looking group.

The girls made very fine appearances by strutting their stuff to the wonderful music of the school band at all except two football games.

On the evening of November 22nd, the girls led our band down Hollywood Boulevard in the beautiful Santa Claus Lane Parade. This parade is often referred to as "The Parade of Stars".

"Orange Colored Sky" was the original dance routine the majorettes danced for the exchange assemblies. The dance routines were arranged by Joan Lopez and Merilyn white.

Lovely Ann Nielsen was drum majorette while Betty Driskill was head majorette.

Vocalist

Our Selma Union High School Swing Band, under the direction of Arthur C. Nord, is one of the school's number one entertaining units.

The members of the band have had a very exciting year. They have played in many assemblies here and have traveled to several neighboring schools to play the leading role in our exchange assemblies.

Everyone appreciates this group's effort to bring popularity and dance music to the school and community. As in other years, the group has been one of the special attractions of Selma High. Due credit should be given to its director, Mr. Nord, who spends much time in seeing that the band is a success every year.

The Glee Clubs have had an enjoyable as well as a profitable year. They have made several public appearances, which included the Christmas program at the Baptist Church, the Operetta, and the Band Concert. The Girls' Glee Club is the largest vocal group in the school, but the Boys' Glee Club has also shown a fine spirit and enthusiasm. Both groups are to be congratulated for the good work they have done this year.

Great defensive play characterized the 1950 Selma Bears. Returning lettermen Dick Cain and Levoy Collins, halfbacks and Dean Rasmussen on the forward wall were the team's main strength. Offensive ground attack with some brilliant running by these men helped to keep up their record fairly high.

The openers of the season were two practice games with Coalinga and Washington Union. Although they lost the first game to the strong Coalinga team, they showed much improvement the following week by defeating the Washington Panthers 24-12.

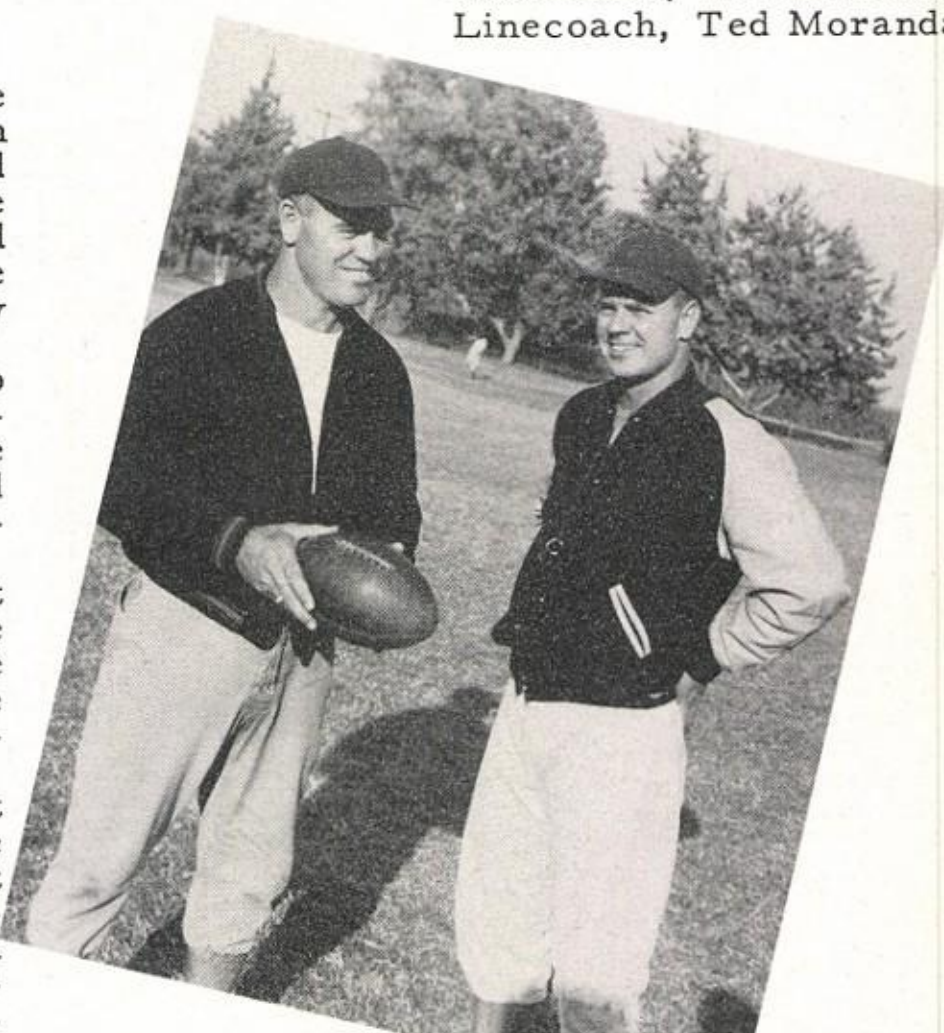

The encouraged Bears got a good start and pinned a 25-12 loss on the Lemoore Tigers. The following week they faced the Reedley Pirates. The Bears outfought the Pirates all the way, but a Bear fumble recovered by the Pirates cost them the game.

Hard luck followed and the Bears lost to Sanger 13-0. They played a tight game against Kingsburg and were leading 13-0 at the halftime. A 25 yard pass by the opponents in the 3rd quarter was good for a score. The final quarter a costly Bear fumble tied the score then they ran for a touchdown. They kicked the extra point which meant another loss to the hard fighting Bears 13-14.

For the last game of the season the Bears out-fought and out-charged the highly favored Dos Palos Broncos 7-6. This was really a thriller because it was the first time in three years that Selma had beaten the Broncos. Coach Nickelini was especially proud to have his team defeat the team of his former coach. You see--Dos Palos is coached by "Ike" Frankian, who at one time coached our own coach, "Nick".

Congratulations go to Dick Cain for winning the most valuable player award.

Our Cubs

Coaches Ryan and Kaehler had a very rough season this year. Most of the players were freshmen and it was their first year of playing football. The Cubs did have a few returning lettermen from the previous season. Returning lettermen were Bob Ogata, Jim Sakamoto and Jim Inouye.

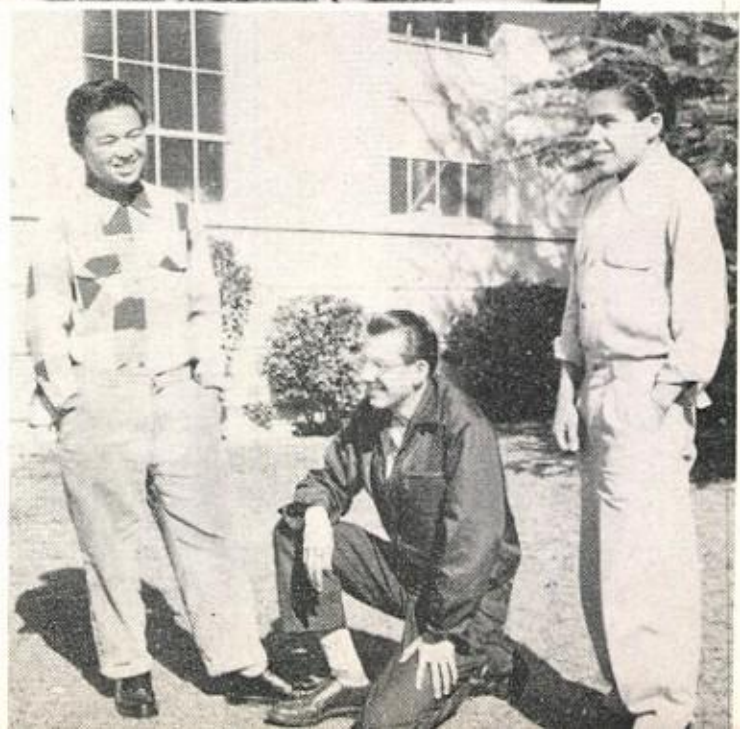

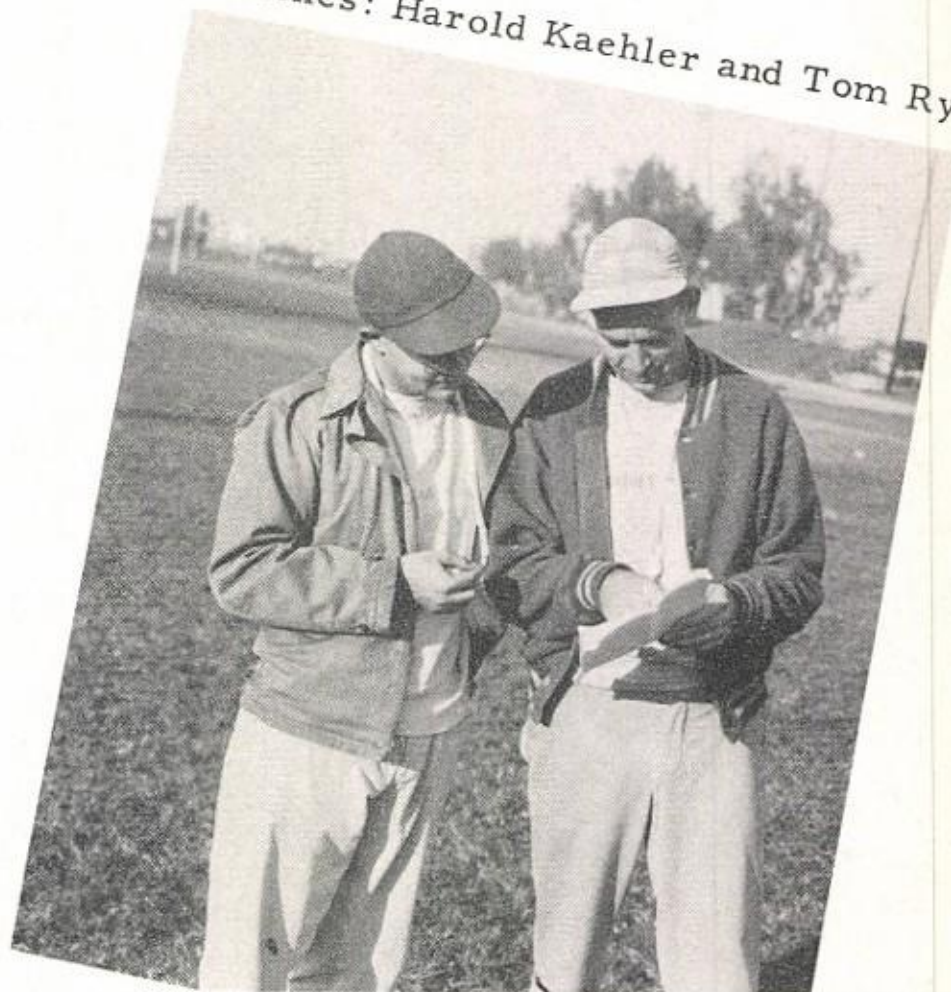

The Cubs started the season with two practice games with Washington Union and Coalinga. They won the first game 24 to 0 and lost the second 7 to 0.

The first league game was with Le-moore; the Tigers defeated the Cubs 20 to 6. The next week the Cubs met the Reedley team, which won 27 to 0. The Cubs then met the stronger Sanger team and were defeated 27 to 0. Against the Fowler eleven, it was a very hard fought game with the Cubs losing 13 to 0.

The Cubs then proved they had what it takes, when they met our traditional rivals from Kingsburg, by defeating them 26 to 9. The Cubs then met the powerful Clovis and Dos Palos teams and were defeated 27 to 0 and 33 to 7.

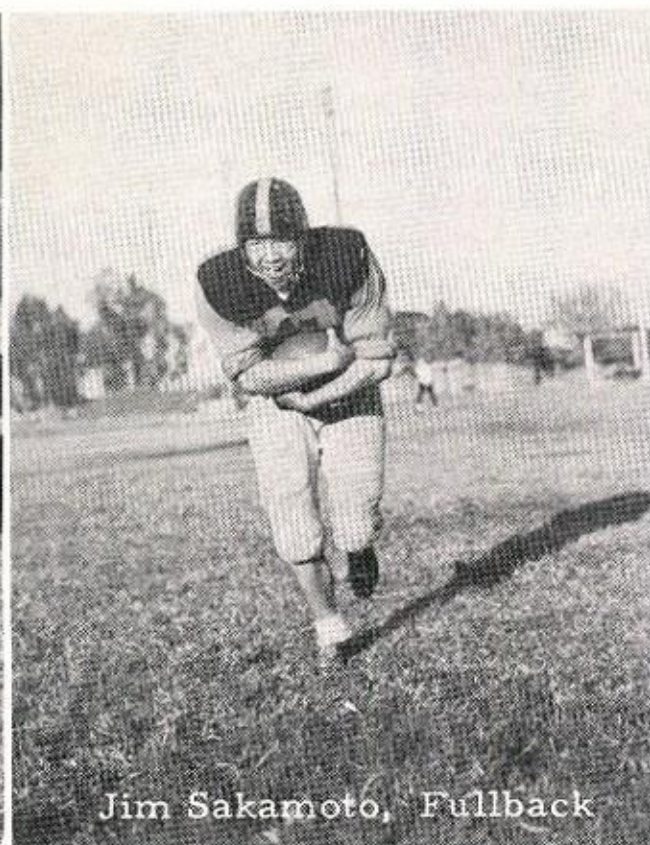

Honors went to Jim Sakamota, who won the most valuable player award. Other outstanding players on the team were Bob Ogata, Jim Hicks, and Jim Inouye.

BEARS

Under the able coaching of Ted Moranda, the Selma Bears turned in one of the best seasons in many years. Having to start from scratch, Coach Moranda produced a scrappy, hard fighting team which took second place in the Sequoia League behind Fowler, last years champions.

There were no individual stars on this casaba crew. The first five developed a smooth style which was the major factor in the success of the season. However the substitutes who were always ready for "relief" work gave depth to the ball club's strength.

CUBS

Coach Ryan's Cubs finished the season with four wins and three losses to give them a tie with Reedley for second place.

The Cubs started the season looking like a real threat for the championship. They won a good part of their practice games but seemed to lose their form when the league play started. By the end of the season the Cubs got back into form and took the last three games to wind up in the tie for second place.

There were no individual stars on the Cub team. The Cubs used the fast break system which proved to be very effective.

TEDDY BEARS

This year the Teddy Bears started off with a bang. Under the coaching of Harold Kaehler, the team looked good. He had a hard fighting, but small squad composed mainly of freshmen and sophomores with exception to a few juniors. Ron Avila did a fine job at the forward spot with the consistent help of all his teammates.

Star Athletes

Points accumulated in G. A. A. activities during their first three years in high school win for three lucky girls the coveted official black school sweater with three stripes. Nobie Kira had the most points, followed by Lois Erickson, and next Merilyn White.

Nobie Kira, Lois Erickson and Merilyn White.

As the ruling of the C. I. F. states that no high school should give to an athlete an award that exceeds $5.00 in cost, the traditional black sweaters that have been awarded in the past to the three athletes with the most points have been cancelled. Instead of the sweaters the boys were awarded black chenille letters trimmed in orange. This year's letters went--in order of points earned--to Dick Cain, Bob Ogata and Junior Donabedian.

At the end of the Football season the most valuable player awards presented by the 20-30 Club were given to Captain Dick Cain of the "A" squad and Jim Sakamoto, captain of the "B" squad. Approximately 300 attended the banquet, where Harold "Red" Sanders, U. C. L. A. football coach, spoke and presented the trophies.

The Block "S" has become one of the largest and most active organizations in school. The membership is made up of the boys who have earned letters in various sports.

This has been an active year for these boys. They boosted our football spirit by selling orange and black rooter pins and black derbies.

Especially fun were the annual Block "S" snow party in January, swimming party in the spring and the annual Sadie Hawkins Dance in March. This traditional dance, according to the kids, is the dance most enjoyed by everyone because of the cute costumes and decorations.

During the year many peppy meetings were held, headed and supervised by the president, Fred Witt, and the advisor, Allen Nichelini.

Girls' Athletic

The Girls' Athletic Association is an organization which gives girls an opportunity to enjoy sports and to create good sportsmanship. The girls in G.A.A. meet Mondays and Wednesdays after school to participate in various sports.

A girl must participate in at least one sport a semester either as an official or player in order to stay in the G.A.A. Most of the girls took part in all the sports.

The sports played this year were volleyball, basketball, and baseball. The teams were organized according to classes this year.

For each sport a girl enters she receives one hundred points. The winning team members get an additional twenty-five points.

Connie Perrine

Armistice Day Queen Candidate

Every year each school in Madera, Fresno County, with the exception of the city of Fresno, sends one candidate to compete for Armistice Day Queen and to ride on the float in the parade.

Our candidate for this year was Miss Constance Perrine, better known as Connie.

Connie was runner up for the position of Queen and represented our school on the float in the parade at Madera.

Candidates for the position of king and queen are chosen from the Senior class by a popular election with all members of the student body voting.

During the two weeks just before the carnival the candidates and their managers sell carnival tickets and the one who has the most success in his sales campaign is crowned at a special ceremony at the carnival. The two losing candidates act as attendants at the coronation.

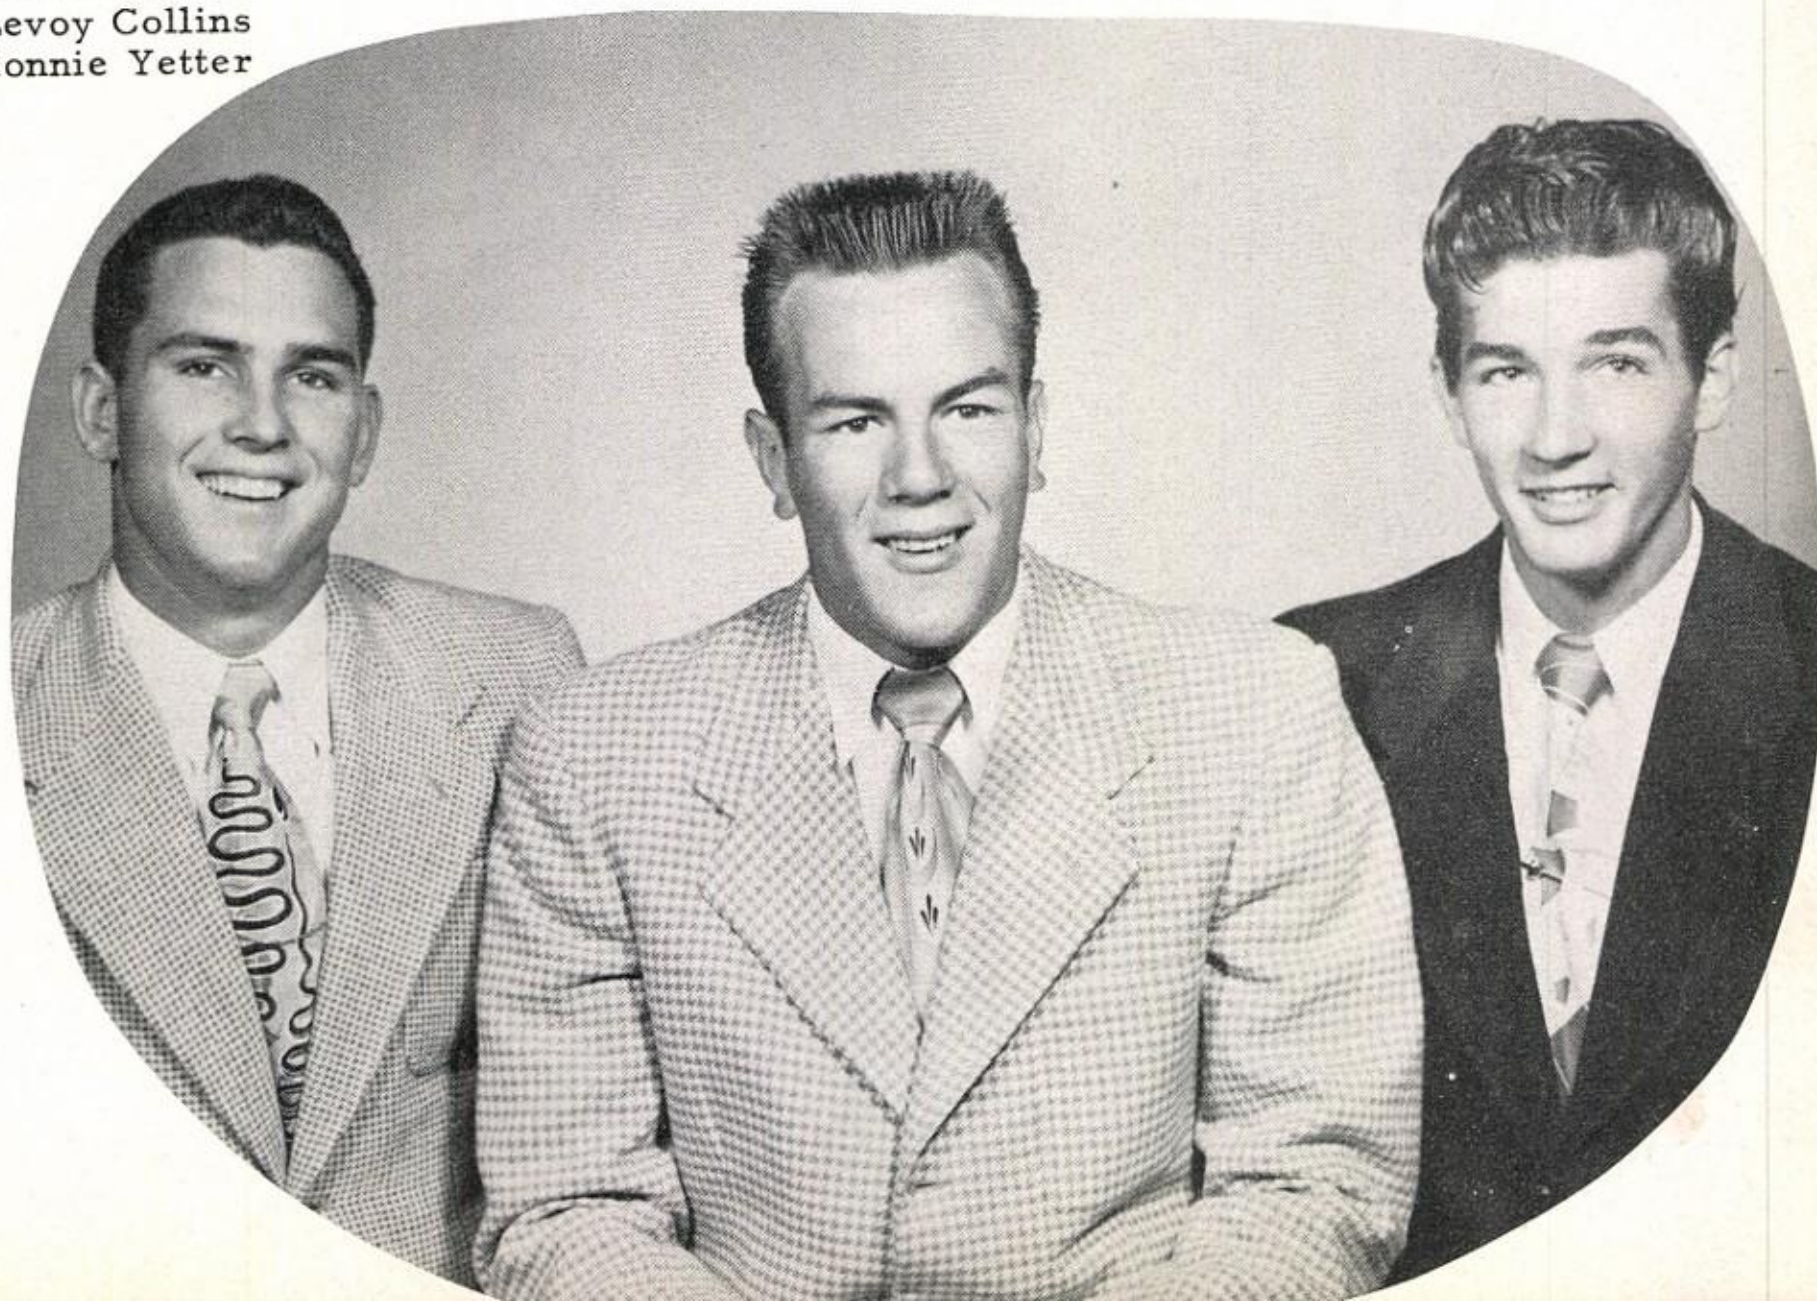

Since the carnival came late this year, the sales campaign was just started at the time the Magnet went to press.
